Reuben Tipton has rented the house where Albert Crow now lives and will move there Monday. He has, also, rented the farm advertised by us, to cultivate.

We heartily welcome Mr. Tipton to our midst.

Every thing cheap at Burgher's.

DIED.

On Feb. 21, about 3 miles east of this place, Mrs. Edina Walters of bleeding ulcer.

Deceased was buried at Powell's Valley Sunday; funeral services were conducted by Revs. Shelby Todd and Seay before interment.

The first of last week a Bath county man advertised in his local paper a lost cat, up to Saturday, he had received three hundred and thirty-two of the many live animals, and the returns are not all in yet. The result conclusively proves two things: It pays to advertise and that cats are still abundant.
